

Frank Marion Davis

August 30, 1939 - June 13, 2012

Frank Marion (Frankie) Davis of Bald Knob passed away the morning of June 13, 2012. Frankie succumbed to injuries sustained in a fall-related accident. He was born August 30, 1939 in Salina, Oklahoma to Marion Asa Davis and Nancy Smith Davis.

Proud of his Cherokee heritage, Frankie spent his early years as a commercial fisherman and lived with his family on a houseboat at the mouth of the Red River. He graduated from Laura Conner High School in Augusta, and received an honorable discharge from the Army National Guard of Arkansas after 6 years of service. He retired from Entergy where he was employed as a senior lineman for almost 30 years. He served his community in many ways including serving as Alderman for the City of Bald Knob, and assisted in the building of Kenyatta Haynes Park.

Frankie was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by Penny, his beloved wife of 46 years, children Dustin Davis, Shannon Davis (his wife Evelyn) and Whitney Brown (her husband Corey), grandchildren Corey (his wife Taylor) Davis, Kayla Davis, Kendal Davis, Michael Meade, Brandon Davis, Shelby Spencer, Autumn Spencer, and great-grand daughter Hynlee Davis. Surviving family also includes his sister Fannie Brown and numerous nieces and nephews.

Frankie touched many lives and was loved dearly by his family. He will be missed.

Funeral arrangements will be handled by Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob.

The family will receive visitors at the viewing Friday evening from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:00 p.m. at the Powell Funeral Home Chapel with interment to follow in a private graveside service.

Pallbearers will be Corey Davis, Kendal Davis, Shelby Spencer, Jimmy Hobbs, Johnny Brown and Andy Pistone.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be made to Cub Scout Pack 157 171 Grover Lane, Bald Knob, Arkansas 72010. www.powellfuneralhome.net.

“ Penny I am so sorry for your loss. Nothing I can say can lessen your your pain, but know that I do feel your pain, and I'm praying for you to be comforted. I find comfort in the scripture that assures us there is no more pain ,sorrow nor tears . love ya Arline Bright
