“Terribly sorry for your loss. As a young man, I had the opportunity to spend a lot of time with Frank. I'll always treasure our time together. We harvested many deer, caught a boatload of fish, played many hands of Spades and shot countless games of pool. That was the man everyone saw on the surface but he was much more. He was a fiercely loyal friend and family member. A man that balanced being the family patriarch while still being the baby boy. He was a flawed hero but always a phone call away. The kind of friend that had your back in the moment and asked questions later. He had a larger than life presence and will definitely be missed.

“ Uncle Frank, my heart will never be the same! Oh my gosh the memories I have of you! From you use to babysit me and Sandy and us all going across the street to play in the wood chips and we would have to hide and you would go up and down on your motorcycle tryin to find us, all the way down to 2013 at the Morgan Family Reunion you riding me on your motorcycle. All the others would say: no way would I ride on the back of the bike with Frank Morgan driving.. and I said: he’s got me I trust him ❤️ I remember staying with you and babysitting little Jennifer for several summers, and I Remember going hunting with you not that I would ever want to shoot anything but just to be with you. You was so much more to me than just my Uncle. I looked up to you.. You would take up time with me when my own daddy left me.. We have had so many laughs together!! Some of the stuff I pulled you would laugh at me and tease me about it!! One memory that just popped up is when me and mom came to see you and Tina at one of your job sites and you tell me to go to your truck and see your new little puppy!! I got all the way to the window and a gigantic dog pops up at that window and barks so loud at me and I ran and you laughed so hard!! All the pranks you pulled and the laughs we had and all the love you had for me I will never forget! You will always be my favorite SPOONS player 🌀 Thank you for all the memories Uncle Frank, your ONE OF THE GOOD ONES for sure! I love you so very much! Love always, your Dolly (Donna)
