

Fred L. King

June 30, 1947 - August 24, 2010

Freddie Louis King, 63, of Kensett died August 24, 2010. Fred was born on June 30, 1947 to Hardie and Juanita King.

Fred was a member of the Judsonia Church of Christ. Fred owned and operated South Y Trailer Supply for many years before his retirement due to his health. He was a true outdoorsman, loving to fish, hunt and be in the woods. He loved his grandchildren who affectionately knew him as Papaw and Poppy. No matter where he went, he always ran into someone he knew and was known as Fred or Freddie or by his parents as Freddie Louis.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Hardie and Juanita King, a sister, Robbie Abbott, a granddaughter, MacKenzie Grace and two uncles.

Left to cherish his memory is his devoted wife of almost 43 years, Lynia J King, daughter, Rhonda Benskin and husband Jimmy of Judsonia, daughter, Ashley Vaden of Conway, grandchildren, Hunter Vaden and Carson Benskin, an Uncle, Albert Weaver and wife Lillie of Cabot, nephew, Christopher Abbott and wife Christie of Cabot, niece, Nicole Holt and husband John of Searcy, great nephew, Zachary Hoofman, and great nieces, Macee' Abbott and London Holt and brother in law, Carl Abbott and several cousins.

Officiating the service is John Kachelman and Doug Robison. Pallbearers will be Jimmy Benskin, Chris Abbott, John Holt, Carl Abbott, J.P. Saunders and Joey Pace.

“ Sweet Lynn, Rhonda and Asley. I was in the White County Hospital when I was brought a Searcy paper and learned of Fred's death. I did not know he had been ill and suffered so long. I know you suffered right along with him. I recall he was so friendly and everyone loved him. Please know I am praying that God will grant you Peace and the Strength to bear your grief.jwh
