“ I have only known Mr. Garland, as I always called him, for about two years. He was the perfect example of a Southern gentleman. I am pleased that I had the pleasure of not only doing business with him but also talking with him. He told me some wonderful stories of the past-especially of my hometown-Boydton, Va. He had a wealth of knowledge in not only jewelry but also with people! I know that I will miss him along with all of his friends, customers, and most of all- his family. God bless him!
