“ I am very sorry for your loss. Gary was a special person. He was very talented and liked to share his talents and stories. I enjoyed getting to know him especially at the LCQ quilt group in Clarksville. I loved looking at his work. Last year at our quilt show he shared his tie quilt and there are so many people here who still remember it and say oh that is the one who made the quilt out of his work ties. I pray that God will grant you the peace you need during this time. I am sorry but I will be unable to attend his service.

“ Always looked forward to seeing "Mr. Crutchfield" come in for his dialysis treatments as did the other patients and staff. You would have never known if it bothered him having to dialyze 3 times weekly. He always brought caramel candies to pass out. I remember him expressing encouraging thoughts to others. We will all miss him. My heartfelt sympathy to the family

“ To Gary Family, may God give you the peace that passes all understanding. I worked with Gary at the museum and he was always such a delight to me. He loved his quilts and loved designing them. Gary may you now be surrounded with all the beautiful colors you created in your quilts now in heaven. God be with you all now and forever.
