“ George was a fellow baseball and basketball player in school. We were a very good baseball team and George played outfield and I recall a home run shot he sent deep into the darkness in center field in Kensett. Too many of that team have already fallen. RIP George. My condolences to all the family.

“ To Brian, Terri and the rest of the Edwards family you have my deepest condolences. George a.k.a "Cool" will be missed. I remember as a kid he always looked out for us as shorties. I will keep memories of him that I was fortunate enough to be a part of. Blessings to the Most High you are receiving a good soldier. "Bless him up" as he begins his new journey.
With Love,
