“ I saw Michael a few months ago at Sidney Smiths dentist office. I hadn't seen him in years. He recognized me and I recognized him , but we couldn't think of each other's name 😊. We finally figured it out and had a good talk. When I came out of the office , he was outside in his truck. He told me he was sick. I hugged him. I should of prayed with him. I'm so sorry for the loss of your brother and son. My thoughts are with you. I'm glad God let me see him one more time.
