“ Jackie, my condolences to you, your mom, your sisters, Allen, and the extended families upon the passing of your father. While it doesn't seem like "just yesterday" when I spent time or had a sleepover at your house as best friends in grade school, I do remember his quiet presence in the background. I believe my mom also worked with him at Craddock & Terry, her first job before marriage at age 19. My father died in early 2008, but my mother still lives on her own, drives, mows grass, etc. Both Jackie and Jo Ann's (nee Wilson) parents are deceased. I didn't go to our recent 40th reunion but ran into Terry Dickey in town. (We have an aunt in common. BTW, I don't know if you knew my paternal grandmother was a Talley, too?!) Terry had a telling comment from Les Powell about our scheduled reunion: Les said almost every weekend was a classmate reunion for him in the funeral business, as more and more of us bury our parents. How sad but true. My thoughts, sympathy, and prayers go out to you all.

“ We share our heartfelt condolences with the extended Lawter family. I recall hearing so many touching stories about George Lawter's kindness, work ethic and devotion to his wife and children throughout his life. The decency, accomplishment and love of these children are a testament to his goodness and a legacy that surely made him immensely proud. God bless and keep you all through this time of grief.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you with the passing of Mr. Lawter. I know these past few weeks have been hard on you with the pain Mr. Lawter has been going through. The memories of him that you hold in your heart will never leave, and he will live on in each one of you. You all are so close and your mom is so lucky to have all of you to help during the difficult weeks ahead. Mr. Lawter was one of the sweetest and nicest "dads" I have ever met. I still have the chair he upholstered for me and he was the "best"!!! Please know that I am thinking about you and love you all. Emily Clay
