

George Schraudt

September 19, 1937 - October 22, 2012

George William Schraudt, age 75 of Searcy, died Monday, October 22, 2012 in Searcy. He was born September 19, 1937 in Memphis, Tennessee to Carl Tucker Schraudt and Elizabeth Irene McKenzie Schraudt. He is survived by Dorothy Schraudt, his wife of 53 years; one son, George Jeffrey Schraudt and wife Amy of Memphis; one daughter, Ann Marie Cook and husband Ron of Little Rock; three grandchildren, Amanda Schraudt of Melbourne, Australia, John McKenzie Cook and Caleb William Cook of Little Rock; and four cousins, Barbara Archer of Memphis, David Schraudt and Tiffany Anderson Schraudt of Houston and Allison Fornal Schraudt of Tampa. He is preceded in death by his parents, Carl and Irene Schraudt. Visitation will be at 1:00 p.m. Thursday with funeral services following at 2:00 p.m. at Powell Funeral Home Chapel in Searcy. Interment will be at Oaklawn Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers, please make memorial donations to the Searcy Children's Home.

Mr. Schraudt sought to live by Christian faith, and most recently was a member of the Westside Church of Christ in Searcy Arkansas. His legacy will live on through many he has touched. He lived as a loving husband, father, grandfather, mentor, coach, and house parent of foster children. Most recently he served the Searcy Kiwanis Club for sixteen years and was awarded the club's highest honor, the Hixon Medal. Mr. Schraudt was grateful to know that Searcy Kiwanis sent a large donation to help combat health challenges of newborns in developing countries.
