“ We will miss Mrs. Georgianna and her conversations. My husband Jessie started out picking Mrs. Georgianna and a friend up from the Assisted Living in our church bus. The steps were a little high for her and she was afraid she would fall so Jessie started picking her up in our car. She would always have a good conversation for us. She would always talk about her family. She would often talk about her grandkids with our daughter. She was a great lady.

“ I am sorry to hear about MS Georgianna. She was a sweet lady and a good Christian lady, I loved our times together when I picked her up to go to church. Our time in the car was so many different conversations about God, Family, and events when we were growing up. Even though I have not seen her in a couple of years, I will never forget her. She loved her family dearly. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. Knowing we will see her again is comforting! Love you MS Georgianna.

“ From Vernon Stallman, the only remaining 1st cousin on the Stallman side of the family.

To Douglas and Phillip

I am sorry tp read about your mother. She and Thelma were always special to me when we were growing up.

I don't know if you realize it or not but the photo about 4:20 minutes in of your mother and a couple standing on either side of her by a 1950 Buick, is my parents and her aunt and uncle, George and Hazel Stallman. The picture was taken in the early 1950's. This picture is taken on the Stallman homestead where your grandfather spent his early years.

My condolences to you and your families.

“ When I was seven years old, I got up to go to the bathroom during the night. I was afraid there was something under my bed and did want to get back in it. My big sister put me in bed with her.
