“ I am saddened to hear of Joe passing. He and Larry were like brothers to me. Over the years our lives drifted apart. I went to the Navy, and their jobs took them to different States, and we just didn't keep in contact with each other. I truly regret that we didn't. We had a lot of good times together, hunting, fishing, and just being teenagers. Linda, you have really been hit hard. I wish I was there to help comfort you. Please contact me, if you just need someone to talk to. My prayers are for you and your family.
