“ Sorry for your loss, Geraldine was a very Godley woman I remember her always visiting our church in Beebe Arkansas as a child. She was always so sweet to me and all the other children, I have had the privilege to grow up with her family and even go to school with some of them. Her sister Sylvia was our cook at school . She will be dearly missed.

“ I remember setting up in the Carmichael Center several years ago (18-20 years) and selling peanut brittle with dear sweet Sis. Coleman. She was a pro and everyone knew her that came by our table. She is reaping her reward! We sure did love her!
