“ Aunt Ninna, I miss you so much I put on a strong front but the truth is it's killing me inside so many ordinary every day thing brings back a memory with you in it but I know you wouldn't want me to be upset because you're at your real home now the place where you worked your whole life to get to.?I know we spent a lot of time together but I find myself getting mad (at myself) because these last couple of weeks I should've been there every day. I'm sorry, I should have been but I know that you know I love you, and you are looking down on me at this very moment with that beautiful smile and shaking your head saying "now I told that girl not to cry" but I will see you again some day! I love you! Love, your sunshine!☀️

“ I have nothing but happy, positive memories of Glenda in high school. She was always smiling and was such a pleasure to be around. She was such a warm, likable individual. I hate that she had to endure so much pain and discomfort during her battle. Her strength and courage is an inspiration to those of us still fighting. With love, Janet Clark, BKCO 1983.
