“ I first met Grace Ruth many years ago when her Aunt Dolly was in the nursing home in Searcy where I worked. My Mom worked there too and was Dolly's nurse. Mom would take Dolly and go see Grace Ruth. Grace Ruth was one of the most precious woman I have ever met...she was definitely genuine. Loved life and all that was in it...She is one that leaves a imprint in a persons life for them to remember her...beautiful lady...May God be with the family and all her friends during this loss...

“ What a precious lady Ms. Harris was. She had more children than she realized. She welcomed each of us into the library as if it were her home. The things she taught us and the memories we have will last a life time.

“ I have so many fond memories of Ms. Harris. As a kid especially during the summer that was one our hangouts was the library. We would spend hours and hours at the library and Ms. Harris was always so sweet and funny, she really had a good sense of humor. I can remember during the summer sometimes she would show movies in the library at night I always enjoyed that. When I was a kid I use to check out a Abbot and Costello record and I would return it and than check it out again, she got a kick of me always listening to that record. She was a dear sweet lady and she will be missed by lots of people!

“ I know Mrs. Harris leaves behind no immediate family, but having spent many years at the library I felt like she was a part of mine. She always had a welcoming smile, and I will forever remember the summers she spent playing Scrabble with Kim and I. Those precious memories are forever etched in my heart! She will be deeply missed!!!
