“ Fannie and family, we were so sorry to hear of Graham's passing. Graham helped me out so much when Rocky was in the hospital having his heart transplant. He put a new roof on our back deck amongst other small household repairs. It was such a relief and a big help to me. We used to go to London ON when the congregation there had their gospel meetings. He was a fine speaker and lover of Gods word. He will be sorely missed by his family and friends. May Gods loving embrace enfold you all now at this time. Sending much love and hugs and our deepest sympathies. Love In Him. Karen and Rocky Larocque

“ Dear Amy Family ~

You are all in our thoughts and prayers today as you celebrate Graham's life and share memories of times together. We are so thankful for Graham's influence on Rich, our son-in-law. Many things that are "second nature" to Rich have either passed along genetically or taught at an early age in a workshop, at a neighbor's home, or by sitting next to his dad in a church pew.

We know that you are all missing him. It makes us smile to think of him telling stories with other fishermen and carpenters in heaven.

*With love,

“ Fannie: You and your family have been in my thoughts and prayers from the time I first heard of Graham's diagnosis. You are certainly on my heart today. I wish I could be there with you, but I count myself blessed to have seen you and Graham so recently. God bless you all. May the precious memories of a life well lived, and the blessing of having been able to share that life with him for 50 years carry you through this difficult time. And above all, the God of all comfort will comfort you in all your sorrows. I love you all.

“ Fannie:. We share in your grief, sorrow, and loss. Graham was always there for us when we needed a shed, he built it. A floor he laid it, and did numerous things for us. We also have memories of our trip up north together fishing and playing games. We love you. Wish we could be there with you. Bob and Beth Hibbard

Graham helped a lot of people including us. He helped build our home office a few years ago, and designed stairs for our family room. He will be greatly missed. He was a big part of the Church of Christ in Guelph. Our sincere condolences to your family.*

“ Jesus said that those who serve are the truly great ones. Graham Amy was a well-educated man of many talents and skills. However, he had the heart of a servant. Wherever there was a need for hard-work service, Graham was likely to be there. He could have achieved greatness in many ways, but he chose to glorify God by showing his great faith through an enthusiastic love for truth, his loving spirit, and works of service.
