

Gwen Corn

December 22, 1925 - April 12, 2015

On December 22, 1925, Gwen Carpenter Corn was born to Charles Orrison and Essie Segnar Carpenter on Gulfa Mountain near Hot Springs, Arkansas., and departed from this earth on April 12, 2015, at the age of 89 blessed years. She is predeceased by her husband of 67 years, Billy E. Corn: her sons, William E. Corn and David Glenn Corn; 2 brothers, Jewel and Charles Carpenter; two sisters lola Hughen and Lee Kraai.

She is survived by granddaughters, Sarah E. Corn-Studdard (Blake), Amanda L. Corn-Hutchison (Heath); step-granddaughter Kimberly A. Middaugh; six adored and greatly loved great-grandchildren, Natalea and William Studdard, Kaiya and Trace Hutchison, Christian Baldwin, and Lauren Middaugh; two nephews and five nieces whom she adored. She is also survived by dear friends Pam Carter-Corn, Rebecca Kersh, and Karen Rametter.

Gwen was a faithful member of the 1st Baptist Church in Searcy, Arkansas, for over 50 years, a charter member of Searcy Junior Auxiliary. She aided in the establishment of the Sunshine School during her year as president. She retired from 1st National Bank after 21 years of service as a customer service officer and teller. Gwen was an avid reader, loved to play scrabble, Bridge with her friends, and loved to be on the golf course.

Services will be held at 1st Baptist Church in Searcy, Arkansas, on Wednesday at 1:00 pm.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ Thinking of you at this difficult time. I cherish my visit and the time we spent together. I envision Aunt Gwen having a joyous reunion with her loved ones who went before.
Praying for peace and healing for her loving family.

Donna Allen - February 10, 2016 at 01:48 PM

GA

“ Sarah and Amanda: I'm so sorry for the loss you are going through. I know your grandmother loved you dearly as well as the great-grands. Think of the positives in that she is not suffering, not wearing oxygen, etc. You are in my prayers. Your grandmother was a beautiful lady.

Gwen E. Anderson - February 10, 2016 at 01:48 PM

GA

“ Sarah and Amanda: I'm so sorry for the loss you are going through. I know your grand-mother loved you dearly as well as the great-grands. Think of the positives in that she is not suffering, not wearing oxygen, etc. You are in my prayers. Your grandmother was a beautiful lady.

Gwen E. Anderson - February 10, 2016 at 01:48 PM