“ *Hankins family;
What warm and dear memories flood back to me as I read the obit. of Mrs. Hallie Hanksins....some of the dearest friends my late father & mother had--Evelyn & Bill Greenwood, Sr....as we visited there in the home often--esp. every Christmas Eve for as long as I can remember growing up....and what a delight to grow up w/ Woody & Emily and others there--as Dad & Woody Sr. would talk & Mom & Hallie would catch up on all the news...and we kids would play together. "I would ask, " dad, why do we go there?" and he would reply..."they are our dear friends and they are smarter than we are and I always learn stuff listening to my friend--Woody." Well, maybe he didn't say it exactly like that --but I too shared those feelings & thoughts.
Be assured of our love and support...and friendship--althou' the decades have keep us apart. May you know the presence & power of our LORD's love and care each day.
