“ Sterling: With Hazel's home going you now have even more to look forward to in heaven. She has received her complete healing but most of all she is with her Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ. She closed her eyes on this earth and the next instance opened them in Heaven. She is now doing in Heaven what she loved to do here on earth and that was to worship the Lord.

You and she had a special bond, one that doesn't come around that often. Be thankful that you had so much time together. Your memories will be yours to enjoy as time goes by and can not be taken from you. The Lord is coming back to get us and then won't that be a big time in Heaven!

In the coming days there will be difficult times but trust in the Lord for your strength and help to get through. We will continue to lift you up to God in prayer. If Moon or I can help you in any way please don't hesitate to call us.

*Praying for you,
Kay and Moon*
