

Helen D. Steward

November 19, 1934 - February 7, 2026

Helen D. Steward, 91, of Bald Knob, passed away on Saturday, February 7, 2026, at her home. She was born on November 19, 1934, in Bald Knob, to the late Charley and Leona (Freppon) Duncan. Helen lived a life full of love, faith, and family. She enjoyed duck hunting, trout fishing, and caring for her flower gardens. She was active in church and found joy in crocheting and making her home a warm, welcoming place. Helen loved hosting family gatherings and making everyone feel at home. Most of all, she cherished being “Memaw” to her grandchildren, loving them deeply and completely, a role she held closest to her heart.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband, Carl Steward.

A thank you to Arkansas Hospice and Palco for the special care they gave our Mom the last several months. Her caregivers: Brandy, Hope, Abbygail, Teagan, Delorys and Jeff made life a little easier for her.

“ I first met Helen and a track meet at the University of Arkansas. She traveled a lot with Carl to many of the meets that he worked. She was always so gracious every time I saw her at the meets. Carl is the person that got me involved int starting track meets which I am still doing today. I will be retiring this year after 56 years as a starter. In Carls last years working as a track official, I remember Helen had to depend on a wheelchair to get around. A few years later my wife and I stopped to see Carl and Helen at their home. When we knocked on the door, Helen came to the door and when she opened the door, she was not in a wheelchair. What a shock. She told us that her doctors had diagnosed her symptoms wrong and had her on the wrong medication. What a pleasant, wonderful surprise. We were so happy for her and Carl. Every time I was driving through Bald Knob I always thought of Carl and Helen

Yours truly
