

Henry S. Tarango

December 26, 1948 - July 11, 2020

On Saturday, July 11, 2020 Henry S. Tarango, husband and father of 4 went home with the Lord at the age of 71. Henry resided in Pangburn, Arkansas. Henry was born December 26, 1948 in Earlimart, California to Vic and Esther. He graduated from Delano High School in 66/67. After high school he joined the United States Marine Corps. Henry also served in the Vietnam War, in which he received a Purple Heart. Henry, my father loved being outdoors, riding around on his tractor and helping others. He loved listening to Vicente Fernandez music and also watching his favorite Mexican movies. He was a man with the one and only laugh that everyone loved to hear. Henry was preceded in death by his parents, his brother, Anthony, and two sisters, Connie and Margaret. He is survived by his wife, Tana; his four adult children, Joe, Mary, Alex and Michelle; his sister, Elena; several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, son-in-law and daughter-in-law. "Dad I Love you always till we meet again." Michelle. Arrangements are pending.

“ Hey dad it's been really hard knowing your not here with us. Me and Michelle is taking it hard... Everyday that goes by it hurts cause your not here with us. They said over time the pain stops hurting but it doesn't I wish you was still here one day the truth will come out. I love you daddy I will see you tomorrow...

EL

Su cuerpo no estará más pero esta en tu mente y corazon y ahí vivirá hasta que nos toque también partir Dios lo tenga en su reino y que no haga un lugar para después estar juntos todos
