“ My prayers are for God to comfort Mr. Spurlock's family. My Daddy, Herman West, was manager of the Harding Press and was in the Lions Club with him. He was the only other person I ever knew named Herman. Daddy always spoke very highly of him. He may have been the one that took him up in the plane so he could take photographs for people.

“ Ross, With tremendous sorrow we received the message today of Harman's passing. I can't believe it has been 47 years since we lived beside you all in the "Rock House." We are doing church work in Gorman, TX and our tenure here is almost over: we will be back in Searcy very soon. Herman and I were close friends and co-workers in the Lions Club of Searcy. We will miss him even as we still miss Esther.
We appreciate your work with the AGF: our daughter-in-law, Vanessa, works for AGF also--in the state office.
