“ Doug and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I know from visiting with you that your Dad was having a very hard time with his disease. Please take comfort in knowing that he is pain free and walking the streets of gold. God bless you and your family and give you comfort in the days to come.

“ *I have a fun memory. When I was little he'd pick me up and say I'm gonna cut off your ears and make em bleed and bleed and bleed and I would scream and run and then go back so he could say it all over again. And I always thought of him when I'd see Mr. Spock on star trek (I guess because of the ears)
He was so loving and so much fun with never an unkind word. He will forever be in my memory until I see him again in our eternal home with our Lord.*
