

Hugh "Larry" Largent McCain

September 6, 1948 - August 28, 2024

Hugh Largent "Larry" McCain, 75, of Kensett, Arkansas passed away on August 28, 2024 at 4:20 p.m.; into the arms of his beloved wife of 20 years, Artie McCain, who preceded him in death, on March 20, 2018.

Larry was born September 6, 1948 in Memphis, Tennessee, to the late Hugh and Annie McCain.

In addition to his parents and wife, he was preceded in death by his brother, David McCain.

Larry is survived by, his daughter and caregiver, Linda Brown, two sons, Lonnie Dixson and Donnie Dixson, his brother, Lee (Cammy) McCain, sister-in-law, Janice McCain, and two brothers-in-laws, Frank Crouch and Shelby Crouch. He is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Larry was a great man with a kind soul. He was polite, giving, and cared deeply for his loved ones. Larry would give anything he could to those in need. He was a 1967 graduate from Harding Academy of Memphis, then went on to attend college at Memphis State University. Larry retired from Walmart after 27 years of service. He was a faithful member of the Cloverdale Church of Christ in Searcy, Arkansas when he was able to attend. Larry was loved by the staff and nurses of Oakdale Nursing Home in Judsonia, Arkansas, and Arkansas Hospice who took great care of him. He was known for his flawless impression of Donald Duck, which the kids who visited loved for him to do.

Thank you to all who loved and cared for Larry. He was loved and will be greatly missed.

See you later alligator- Love you
