“ OK HERE GOES A LONG ONE.....Dearest Uncle Jake and Aunt Marie.....I will never forget the times when my daddy and momma would bring us to Arkansas to spend the summers with your sister my grandma Estelle Stevens and my grandpa Lonnie Stevens. They would take us to your fields to pick strawberries. We may have been little, and maybe didn't do such a good job, but we were so proud to earn our own money. I believe it was 10 cents per quart. Wow ...that bought some yummy candy and gum back then at the corner store. And then you married my grandma's best friend Marie. When I lost my grandma and you married Marie she became my grandma and fit right in where your sister left off. Thank you for loving her too because she always loved you and deserved happiness! Maybe they will let you garden up there too! Please say hi to my grandparents Lonnie and Estelle Stevens and Albert and Leo Lowery as well as your parents Great Grandpa and Grandma Hoofman there in Heaven would you? Tell them I will see them someday soon! I will surley miss you! Love always Patty (Lowery) Broeker

“ We are truly sorry to say farewell to a fine gentleman, with whom we share an ancestor--Jacob Hoofman, born about 1784 in North Carolina, established a large family of descendants in Tennessee and Arkansas. Through his son, Josiah (b.1826) and Louisa Wall, we form our family bond.

Sincerely, Peggy (Hembree) Whitt and Jean (Whitlow) Wortham
