“ Andy and Kathleen, I remember Jake well from the days when he was a little guy, running around and making folks smile at church in Rolla. I'll bet he made a lot of folks really smile in his lifetime. I will be praying for you all; I hope you can feel the love that so many of us are sending your way.

“ Dear Andy and Kathaleen,

Gary and I only learned today of Jake's accident and passing. We are so terribly saddened for you and pray that God will wrap his mighty arms around you and all who loved Jake. I am so sorry that I didn't know about it sooner. I would have definitely come to the service. Your family became very special to us while you were watching over Emily and Ethan. I will continue to pray for healing for all of you.

“ Andy, Kathaleen, and family,

Our hearts hurt with yours on the news of losing Jake! Gloria Woods asked for prayers on your behalf on Facebook Friday, Dec. 11. It's been many years since our friendship in Columbia. I can see Jake in my mind's eye bouncing around with all the other kids while our "Moms Group" fellowshipped. May those warm, heart-full memories of him help you make it through this time, along with leaning on our Great God, loving family, and friends! We are keeping you in our prayers.
