

James Andrew Weathers

June 29, 1925 - January 30, 2014

James Andrew Weathers, 88, of Bald Knob, died Thursday, January 30, 2014 in Searcy. He was born June 29, 1925 in Denmark a son of the late Henry and Lucy Isham Weathers. Mr. Weathers was a veteran of the Korean War and was a retired machinist for International Harvester. He enjoyed shopping and visiting at local flea markets as well as fishing.

He is survived by his daughter, Carol Floit (Gary) of Kingston, Illinois; step-daughters, Tammie Nan Tanner of Bradford, Teresa Lynn Crenshaw of Bald Knob and Tanya Renee Schmidt of Batesville; sister, Minnie Allred of Indiana; grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Rachael Bacon (Jeremy) and their child, Naomi of Trumann, Katie Aretos (Theodore) and their child, Max of Genoa, Illinois and Melanie Edwards (Daryl) of DeKalb, Illinois; numerous step-grand and great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wives, Mary Verlea (Newswander) Weathers and Evelyn Weathers; brothers, John and Thomas Weathers and a sister, Marie Battin.

No services are scheduled at this time.

Cremation arrangements are entrusted to Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net.