“ All of us at Sign Rock Mud Bog would like to ask each and every one of you to take a moment and reflect on how precious life truly is. James Dunaway lost his battle with cancer today. He has helped out around the mud bog since it started and always kept us in good company around the shop. I am sure over the years he has given most all of us a tow around with the tractor. I am glad to say that he was able to make it there this past Saturday. He was a good friend and will truly be missed. God Bless you James!
