“ My prayers and sorrow go out to the family. It seems like a lifetime ago seeing Ross, Heath and Richard playing golf at the country club. Ross and Heath would play a round with their dad and then come swim at the pool for a while. We would play Sharks and minnows or Fish and fishermen. Those 2 boys were competitive in that game. I remember Ross's smile. He always had one, especially when we would talk hunting and fishing. I know he was loved and will be missed.

“ My heart is saddened to hear of the passing of Ross. My prayers for peace, comfort and strength are being made for you all during this time. I worked with Richard, Ross's daddy, at Ark. Wholesale Lumber Co. for a long time and considered both Richard and Susan, my friends. My heart hurts for them, their Daughter in law, Granddaughters and Heath.

“ Ross was absolutely the sweetest child I ever taught; and, I told God if he blessed me with a boy I prayed he would be just like Ross Hall, an individual who saw no bad in anyone.
 In 1990, God blessed me with my son who is named Ross after Ross Hall.
 I cannot wrap my mind around this at all; and, I know his parents Susan and Richard are far more confused than I.
 May God bless you with knowing Ross is with Him, now, and will see you again, Susan and Richard. I am praying for all who loved Ross Hall. 💕🌸
