This video is a wonderful way to show Jimmy's life over the years. As a classmate I remember his eyes, his calm behavior and that he seemed shy. Lost track of almost all of our classmates after graduation, so glad to see that he served in the military. At that time he may have seen some horrible events, but looks like he came home to a lovely family. My sympathy to his family for losing a great guy. Carol Tierney

I served in the Army with Jim at Ft Monmouth and in Vietnam. Lost touch for years then got back in touch about 10 years ago. We talked on the phone once or twice a year, but always around Christmas. I tried calling him tonight but to no avail. I knew he had been sick. Heartbroken to find out of his passing last January. He was such a kind and peaceful man. Jim Duffy, Clifton, N.J.
