

James Charles "Jim" Hunt

August 26, 1949 - August 23, 2015

James Charles "Jim" Hunt, following a long battle with cancer, went to be with The Lord on August 23, 2015 at St. Vincent's Hospital in Little Rock, Arkansas. He was born on August 26, 1949 to Dewey and Juanita Huff Hunt in Merced, California, but he made Jacksonville, Arkansas his home. Jim graduated with honors in 1967 from Central High School in Judsonia, Arkansas. Upon graduating, he immediately began his vocational education at Foothills Vocational-Technical School in Searcy. There he received his training in electronics that spurred his life-time career with Arkansas Power & Light (AP&L), later known as Entergy Corporation. Jim retired last year from Entergy after faithfully serving his company for 35 years.

He is survived by his wife Jenny Givens Hunt of the home; children, Sunni Hunt Davis and husband Randy of Judsonia, Allyson Hottinger of Jacksonville, Tammy Dawn Gibson and husband John of Tyron, Oklahoma, and Lane Hunt and wife Taylor of Searcy; eight grandchildren, Ethan Treece, Lexxi Treece, Jennifer Segan, Brandi Ritchie and husband Michael, Landen Wade, Evan Gibson, Ethan Gibson, Ella Joy Gibson, and newborn granddaughter, lyla Ambree Grace; three great-grandchildren, Brayson, Brynlee and Bryer Ritchie. He is also survived by numerous friends, family members, and co-workers of whom he proudly called his "kids".

Jim was a believer of the Baptist Faith and enjoyed giving generously to others. When he wasn't working, he enjoyed playing and collecting guitars, shopping for gifts, golfing and riding his motorcycle.

He was preceded in death by his father, Dewey Charles Hunt; mother, Juanita Huff Davis and step-father, Dobe Davis, all of Judsonia, Arkansas.

A graveside funeral will be held Saturday, August 29, 2015 at 1:00 pm at Providence Cemetery in Judsonia, Arkansas.
