“ I am sorry for your loss. I didn't really know James very well, but my family really cared a lot about him. That speaks volumes to me. He must've been a great man. I know my family will miss him.

“ James was a very good man. A man that I have grown to enjoy being around on my annual visits to Searcy, as well as appreciate the friendship bestowed upon me and my family members. It will not be the same this fall when I come for my visit. Rest in Peace my Friend.
