“ I'll cherish his memories of Augusta and the history he shared. He was a wealth of knowledge and remembered everything. He began calling me Mary when I took over Mother's finances. He was doing her taxes, and I had to sign everything with my first name. He initialed some paperwork for us, so I began calling him J.A. We would greet each other with the our chosen nicknames - "Hello, Mary." "Hello, J.A" Our friendship was as easy as a greeting. It always made both of us smile. I'll always hold a special place in my heart for Jane and J.A.

“ I was privileged to work with James Allen when he served on the Augusta School Board and I was the District Accountant. I was impressed by his knowledge, wisdom and honesty. He spent many hours working for the students and staff of the school district. I was blessed to know him and learn from him and his wife. I will be praying for the family.
