

James R. Schrand

January 13, 2015

James Raymond "Sonny" Schrand, 59, of Judsonia, died Tuesday, January 13, 2015. He was born October 22, 1955 in Searcy the son of the late Claude and Elsie (Hollingsworth) Schrand. Sonny was an avid golfer who won many tournaments. He took home many trophies for his golf game but he also won many tournaments for billiards as well. He was an Arkansas Razorback fan that never waivered. He was an active member of the Providence Missionary Baptist Church where he was previously a Deacon for many years. He enjoyed playing the piano and singing with the traveling quartet.

He is survived by his son, Matthew Schrand and wife Tami; a daughter, Becky Addington and husband Adrian; 6 grandchildren, Brooke, Chloe and Katelyn Schrand, Caleb, Cameron and Bentley Addington; sisters, Claudia Walmsley and Connie Johnston; his sweet heart, Debbie Covington; as well as, a host of other relatives and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents and brother, Wiley Schrand.

Visitation will be Thursday from 5:00-7:00 p.m. Services will be conducted Friday, January 16, 2015, 2:00 p.m., at the Powell Funeral Home Chapel in Bald Knob. Interment will follow in Evergreen Cemetery. Arrangements entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net

“ Becky, Matt, and the rest of the family, my heart goes out to you in this time. I will always remember playing the piano while he led singing. I got chills when he would lead "Whispering Hope." We rode to church together for quite awhile and really got to be Better friends. I'm thankful for the opportunity to have known such a nice man. May God's peace surround you in this time, while in heaven, Sonny's beautiful voice will eternally sing with the angels!

“ I was so sorry to read of the loss of Sonny. My thoughts & prayers are with you at this time. I know what it is to lose a little brother. Yes I know he was a grown man & a father but he will always be your little brother (Claudia & Connie). He's up there now with Mom, Dad & Dennis & of course your Mom & Dad--don't you know they are having a good time visiting? Praying for you.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. As a fellow classmate, I recollect (like it was yesterday) Sonny's quiet easy-going attitude, his kindness to others, his sense of humor and his smile. I'm grateful to have visited with him briefly at a class reunion dinner a few years ago. Even though he was already battling this awful disease, his pleasant & positive attitude was obvious. Through conversations with mutual friends, I know Sonny had a deep faith, and that his life bore testimony of Jesus Christ. He was a good man. So although I am heartbroken about his passing, I am also filled with joy to know he is in heaven with loved ones who've gone before - and most importantly, with God Himself. As promised in God's Word, I look forward to a grand reunion one day!
