“ Hester, Betty, Melinda, Jay and families;

How we miss this godly man, James Satterfield...a pillar in the community and in Mt. Vernon Church. My dad had highest respect for bro. James and looked to him for much wise counsel. James and Hester were the 'glue' that held Mt. Vernon Church together for many years....serving in so many valuable roles. How we will miss him. We regret his declining health these last several years--but a crown awaits him with our LORD and Master, Jesus. May you know our LORD's comforting presence and power each day. Press on, dear ones. Our Lamb has conquered !
