“Dad called me a couple of days ago and said Jamie had called. I could tell by his voice that something was not right. He let me know James had passed. The memories from our youth rushed though my mind. Many nights spent playing on the hill or running back and forth through the woods from our house to yours. I still have a scare on my head from where the boat prop caught me one night, as I ran from my dad. I thought I could out run him but that stink-in boat prop got me. The trips to Bluff Hole. I couldn't imagine wanting to change a thing. James was such an integral part of my upbringing. Today, I morn to. Although not there in person, Gloria, Jamie, Michael, Stevie, I offer my heart felt condolences to each of you. May God bless you each and pour a special blessing of comfort into your heart.
