

James Treat

January 22, 1928 - February 8, 2009

James Franklin Treat, age 81, of Judsonia, died Sunday, February 8, 2009. He was born January 22, 1928 in Judsonia to the late Thomas A. and Cora Bell Watkins Treat.

Mr. Treat was a U.S. Army veteran. He was retired from the American Standard Corporation, a member of Bethel Grove Church of Christ and a cattle rancher at the time of his death. In the past he served for many years as a Deacon and as head of the Church Benevolent Committee.

He is survived by his wife, Glorianne Treat of the home; two daughters, Paula A. Treat of Evansville, Indiana and Connie L. Treat of Searcy; four grandchildren, James, Valerie, Andy and Whitney; three great-grandchildren, Jessica, Marcus and Carter.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Harold and Jack Treat. To all who knew him, James was special, but to his family, he was so much more. He was the vein of gold running through their foundation, their inspiration. The twinkle in his eyes was the best present any could hope for. He will be deeply missed.

Visitation will be from 6:00 to 8:00 pm Tuesday, February 10th at Powell Funeral Home in Bald Knob. Services will be at 10:00 am Wednesday, February 11th at the Powell Funeral Home Chapel in Bald Knob with interment in Providence Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ I think of you daily and cherish the influence you have on my life, even today. I miss you here with me but knowing where you are and the peace you have brings me comfort. Till we meet again.

Connie Treat - March 29, 2013 at 02:14 PM

“ gloria we didnt even know james died but we are so sorry to hear it ... sending prayers and love

February 22, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Gloria and family, We are so sorry and send our prayers and love.

February 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM