James E. Wallace of Augusta, Arkansas (Born September 26, 1939, Died January 4, 2020)

The family will have a Memorial Service: January 8th, 2020 at 10 a.m. Worden Baptist Church, Worden, AR.

In Lieu of flowers:..... Donations can be sent to Trump 2020! :)

Jim was preceded in death by his parents Wave and P.M. Wallace, three brothers, two sisters and his sons Rick and Dean Wallace. Jim is survived by his brother Joe Wallace, Ella Mae Thompson, June Elliott, his two boys Greg & Andy Turner (Cabot) and three grandchildren; Gracen, Reese and Graham Turner.

Jim never bragged, but he loved to be bragged on! So here goes.....

Jim Wallace was a man of character, wit and wisdom. When he spoke, his words were true, well thought out and worth listening to. For 40 plus years he held court from his porch swing overlooking the White River... spinning yarns and tales of capers as a cavalcade of characters came and went. Whether it was a serious piece of sound advice, a business deal or simply chewing the fat, all who entered looked forward to coming back. His comedic timing was impeccable. That sideways look with the opened mouth told his audience that he was about to drop a major punch line. Those who knew him well would say that Jim had grit. Whether playing football as an All District end, fighting his way to the Golden Gloves Championship Fight, struggling to make ends meet with low soybean prices or simply fighting through illness in later life, there was something special about Jim Wallace. He had an “it” factor that is hard to describe on paper, but those who knew him can attest. Although he will be deeply missed, his legacy of character, wit and wisdom will live on in the lives of all he touched.

Cremation arrangements entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia.

“ Jim was a very special friend. I have had so many fantastic times with him and many other friends like Wanda. Wayne, Dennis, Butch, Dean, Rick and more. There was always a laugh to be had. Jim and I spent many an hour side by side swinging on the swing he loved so much and watching tv, often times a western. Many of the years, Blaze or Puddles, 2 of his puppy friends would be nearby. Jim was playful and funny and made me smile from ear to ear. I was blessed when I met him and it was so clear every time I saw him or thought of him. He was a truly happy, kind, fun-loving man. He used to jokingly call me his girlfriend. We often cooked Rib Eye steaks, mashed potatoes, and baked onions. He always teased and said "my baby, she gets the biggest steak because she can eat!" I will think of Jim everytime I have Butter Pecan ice cream. There were also many great rides through the fields on the Gator or a golf cart. He was a lot of fun. Thanks Jim for all of the love, boat rides, good meals, hearty laughs, and memories. I will love you always!

“ Condolences to the family. As you already know, Jim was a great man. All that knew him, loved him, as he loved all . He will be greatly missed. What a man of character he was . He had a joke and a laugh for everyone. To say that Jim will be missed is putting it mildly.
