

Jane Hogan

March 30, 1925 - January 17, 2016

Jane Hogan died peacefully in her sleep early Sunday, January 17, after 90 years of service to her family, her friends, and her God. She is survived by her husband of 68 years, Gordon. Born to Eustace and Gladys (Bonfoey) McAuley, she was the youngest girl in a family of seven children. She is survived by two brothers, Arthur Lee McAuley and Fred McAuley. Deceased siblings are Eustace McAuley, Harriet Adler, Ethel Harper and Mildred Nabatoff. She is survived by three children: Beth (Mike) James of Searcy, Dave (Debbie) Hogan of Singapore and Julie (Ron) Garner, of Dexter, Missouri. Eight grandchildren include: Jennifer (Aaron) Green of N. Richland Hills, Texas.; Jeremy (Jennifer) James, Jessica (Cliff) Collins, and Jonathan (Jenna) James, all of Searcy; Breda Hogan of Austin, Texas. ; and Bobby (Candice) Garner, Alex Garner, and Sam (Nicole) Garner, all of Dexter. Jane enjoyed the blessing of twelve great-grandchildren. Jane leaves behind a host of friends and family worldwide. She and Gordon made a remarkable partnership as they led mission work in Pakistan and Singapore for 33 years. She was raised in Savannah, Georgia, and kept her genteel southern drawl that was a well-known trait to her friends. Her family members smile as they happily recall her and try to mimic her spunky spirit and infectious laugh that was so delightful in her sub-five-foot frame. But that small package delivered powerfully! Jane mentored many with her kitchen prowess, and frequently acted as nurse or mama away from home. Her home was aptly called the Hogan Hotel because of her hospitality. Friends and family will find a tremendous void in their lives. But all are very happy for her victory, which is assured by her dedication to her Savior. Visitation will be Thursday morning at 9 at the College Church of Christ, with the celebration of her life to follow at 10am with Noel Whitlock and Bruce McLarty officiating. Interment will follow immediately at Oak Grove Cemetery in Searcy. Memorials may be made in her name to College Church of Christ, Searcy, for the building fund of the Moulmein Church of Christ in Singapore. Arrangements by Powell Funeral Home of Searcy. www.powellfuneralhome.net

Tribute Wall

CC

“ Truly a sainted wife and mother has gone home. She was loved and adored by thousands and truly gave her all for others in the name of Jesus!

Charlie & Paula Coil - February 10, 2016 at 01:11 PM

CB

“ What a great lady! What a great life and legacy. Some of my best moments in my memory were at her table. The world has been a better place because she graced it so well. Her laughter and Savannah charm permeated the home. We are all blessed by her life who had the pleasure being with her.

Charles & LaDora Bishop - February 10, 2016 at 01:11 PM

BL

“ We feel that God has blessed us and enriched our lives through our friendship with His exemplary servants Jane and Gordon Hogan. Although we sorrow, just think how excited Jane must be to be "with the Lord." She has known Him a long time, but now she sees Him "face to face." We are praying for the comfort of all this special family.

Bill & Helen Lambert - February 10, 2016 at 01:11 PM

LH

“ I am so grateful for the wonderful messages of love and care that my dear Aunt Jane always shared with me and my dearest mother Ethel. Her visits always brought wonderful stories to our home. Her more recent visits to Pennsylvania were treasured here by my cousin Pat and both our extended families. I always admired her warmth and elegance.

Lee Harper Schultz (aka Gladts Lenora Harper) - February 10, 2016 at 01:11 PM

LR

“ I have such wonderful memories of being at their home. She was always so sweet and had such a wonderful laugh! I remember the tips she gave me when I was getting married. May God bless your family and Brother Hogan at this time.

Lois Ann Braham Ripley - February 10, 2016 at 01:11 PM

FJ

“ Aunt Jane shared her love of family and God with gentile grace and joy. A truly beautiful lady and family. So sorry we can't be with you today to celebrate her life and warm memories.

Fred Meldon McAuley Jr - January 22, 2016 at 12:00 AM

RW

“ Sorry for the lost of your loved one .

Robin Whitaker - January 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM