“ Nikki, Kim, and family,
I had never met Janice until my mom, Linda, Janice's cousin, was able to take us to the fair when it was nearby. I thought it was so fun, and cool, to hang out inside her food stand while she and my mom would visit.
I am so sorry for your loss. It meant a lot when you both came to my mom's visitation. I would pay the same respect to your mom if I could. Please, take care and know that I send you peace and love.

“ Janis was a beautiful soul with a lot of "moxie" mixed in that personality! I will miss my cousin and loved her dearly. She now moves forward without pain and we remember all the love she gave so unselfishly.

“ So sorry for your loss. She was a great lady and will be sorely missed. Stay strong Kim and Nikki. A loss of a mother is painful; however, she will be always looking down on you both.
