

Jason McInturff

May 25, 2013

Jason Brent McInturff, age 42 of Searcy, died May 25, 2013. Jason, beloved daddy, husband, son, brother, and friend, we miss you more than our broken hearts can feebly express. And yet, what a privilege to remember how beautifully you gave yourself away while you shared this side of heaven with us. Oh how your smile infected a room, filled with your easy sway and laid back way of saying, "It is what it is!" How your gentle pursuing of those you were crazy about was so faithful to us! The phone calls to us on your own birthday, and the way you never forgot our special occasions.

You were the perfect balance of rough-and-tumble "gotta go fishin" masculinity and "wait, something's wrong!" intuitiveness that usually only the gentler gender possesses. The way you shepherded your little boys when Nic and Eli were young – no daddy ever nurtured, loved, or was more proud of sons than you. If you had a windowed voice today from the throne room of Heaven, we know you would tell them, "Live for Jesus! Nothing....no one compares to Him!"

Thank you for filling our lives with forty-two years of gentle embraces, sometimes bad jokes, a warrior's heart to protect, your infectious passion for God's creation, your relentless ability to drag home any animal that you thought needed you, your tedious desire to argue any point at any time from any, any, any arena of life, for giving the plaid shirt and holey jeans off your own back to anyone in need, and for having a loud voice and a soft heart.

We're not sure whether we'll kick your tail or smother you with kisses once we step into eternity, but until then, know how intensely you are loved by Nicholas and Elijah, Stephanie, Mom and Tom, Dad and Anne, Leah and family, Tamra and family, Tammy, and all your multitude of other family and friends. We're so thrilled that you are hanging out with Shane, Lisa, Mamaw Pauline and Granddaddy Delbert, and Mamaw Mc and Granddaddy Mc this very moment.

We'll be celebrating your life at Powell Funeral Home in Searcy on Friday, May 31, 2013. Family can visit at 1:00, and the service will be at 2:00. Instead of flowers, we are setting up the Jason McInturff Memorial College Fund in care of First Security Bank. www.powellfuneralhome.net

“ I am so sorry for your loss! Nothing hurts worse than losing one of your children and they are your babies no matter how old they get. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. May the Lord walk close with you through all of this. I know that Dale was there at the gate to welcome him in. Always a friend, Trudy (Hoofman) Langley

“ Our deepest sympathy for your entire family during this loss... I did not know you personally, but Mike's oldest son, and Jason played soccer together, and my oldest daughter was his age, and remembers him from school... We will pray for the strength and comfort that only God can give... Mike and Edith Seger

“ I am so very sorry to hear about Jason. I have known him for many years, he was a groomsman in my wedding years ago. Although I haven't seen him much in recent years, I always thought a lot of him. Anytime I saw him, he had a smile on his face and was always happy to see you. His family will be in my thoughts and prayers, especially Stephanie, Nic and Eli. May God bless and comfort you all.
