

Jeffrey Dacus

August 21, 2010

Jeffrey Scott Dacus, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, died August 21, 2010. He was born December 1, 1953, the son of Dr. Robert J. and Helen Dacus.

He is survived by his mother, Helen Dacus; a brother, Dr. Robert M. Dacus and wife Nancy; two nephews, Joseph and Weston Dacus; as well as aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was a graduate of Searcy High School in 1972 and he graduated from Hendrix College with a major in biology and a minor in Chemistry. He then received a masters Degree in Agriculture from the University of Arkansas. He also attended Harvard University in the summers.

He worked for the University of Arkansas as a laboratory technician and later as a research specialist. He also worked for Weyerhouser as a research specialist and regional manager in Lyon, Georgia.

Jeffrey joined the Army National Guard and after a year volunteered for the United States Army, where he served in the 5th Infantry Artillery Division until he was honorably discharged on January 31, 1986.

Tribute Wall

“ Helen, so sorry to learn of the death of your son. My sister Mary and I express our deepest sympathy to you and your family.

March 29, 2013 at 02:12 PM

“ dearest robert, i just heard about jeff's death. i am so surprised and sorry that this has happened to your family. i believe mother told me it was a sudden passing and after going through the last few weeks since david arnholt's death, i know the additional devastation that goes with it. please pass my condolences on to your mother. love, jerri

September 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Robert, Nancy & Mrs. Helen, our thoughts & prayers are with your family during this time.

Your friends in Corvettes of Arkansas, LTD.

August 25, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Please know the family is in our prayers...What a fun and geniune human being all that knew him can share a funny story of something that saw or heard Jeff had done. High School was a long time ago but the memories hang on Praying for all

August 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ He had the most contagious smile. You could always see him towering over the other guys. My deepest sympathy for Robert and Jeff's family.

August 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family at this most difficult time.

August 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Wow what a good friend he was. I can still remember his brown Chevy Chevelle SS - that thing could run. He was a kind soul that would help a guy out if it was needed, usually with a big smile on his face. He will be missed by all those close to him.

August 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM

*“ Helen, Robert and Nancy,
We were so sorry to hear about Jeff. May God give you strength and comfort during this most difficult time. Henry and Dolores Gilliam*

August 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ He was the sweetest, funniest, and smartest. We shared some wonderful memorable times. And although I haven't seen him in many years I will miss him. I always thought I would see him again. My love and sympathy to Robert and the family.

August 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I am so sorry to learn of your loss. We will be praying for your family and friends. ”

August 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM