“ Momma,
I miss you so much.
This doesn't seem real.
You were taken from us far too soon.
I wasn't finished learning from you. I wasn't finished asking for your help and advice. I wasn't finished pestering you and making you laugh.
I had this dream and hope that one day when I fall in love you would be a part of her life, and that you and Dad both would be there for our wedding.
All that time I spent working, cycling and traveling is time that I now wish I would have spent with you. I was fortunate enough to have been able to spend more time with you than most people are able to spend with their mothers, but it wasn't enough time.
I think you were trying to protect me and keep me from hurting by allowing me to think that you were going to pull through this again and recover, but you know that I can fix anything and you must have known that it would devastate me knowing that I couldn't fix you.
However, after what you did for me the day after your passing, I now know that you are still guiding me and helping me through everything.
I wish I could hug you again.
I will forever miss you and love you.
Your sweet boy,
-Jason
