“ From the first time I met Ryan, in the front yard of your Gloucester home, in a diaper, struggling to carry a dog ,as big as him in his arms, he had the biggest smile on his face and looking back through the many years of friendship with your family, that smile and a nice word was something I could count on whenever Ryan was there. You could see and feel the love Ryan had for his family and the respect he had for his Mom and Dad. Ryan grew up but that smile and lust for life never changed. I can only imagine the pain and sorrow your family is feeling. Please know that my family is praying and thinking about you all.
