I didnt know this young man,only what Liz Plumer would share with Facebook. I was as concerned as she was. She would always ask for Prayers for him. She also asked anyone to wear Ruby Red shoes for him, I think. Always thinking of him. Our ways are not Gods ways. Only God knew this mans fate from the time he was born. Now, prayers for his Family during this time of sorrow.

“ I have fond memories of Teal bringing Jeremy to our hunting camp located north of Fordyce in Dallas County, Arkansas when Jeremy was just a little boy. Jeremy was always polite and really enjoyed being at the camp learning to be a part of our hunting , cooking and spending nights in the bunk house with his Dad and us friends and it was a pleasure seeing him having fun there.

Perhaps it was these experiences that helped him acquire his enjoyment for hunting and fishing along with the pleasure of being outdoors.

Jeremy will be greatly missed.
