“ You have all been in our thoughts & prayers throughout this time. Andy & I just want you to know we are so deeply saddened by your loss -- of a son, a brother, an uncle, a friend. You have become family to me, & we are/always will be here for each of you, as family should be.

Kim, as best friends, I want you to know I love you dearly, & will continue to be there - no matter what your need, or no matter when you need it.

Betty, you're a wonderful person, & I will continue to keep you in my prayers as time passes. If you need me, tell Kim, I'll be there.

Cori & Ben, I lost an aunt in an auto accident when I was your age - & can relate to how both of you must feel. You will never forget your Uncle Jeremy, & I promise one day your heart will be filled with many fond memories of the times you have shared. I am here for you two, as well.

Robert, take care of Mom, Landon, Kim, Jim, Cori & Ben when I can't be there.

We love you all very much!

God Bless You!

“ I only met Jeremy a couple of times, but was impressed by his martial arts skills, dedication to his studies and to helping others improve their skills. I could tell he was a team player and cared for the younger students who followed the same path of enlightenment as did he. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.
