

Jerry Arthur Moore

August 29, 1939 - July 30, 2023

Jerry Arthur Moore, 83, of Conway, passed away July 30, 2023. Born August 29, 1939, in Albion, Arkansas to the late William Oaklin Moore and Reba Vaughan Moore, Jerry retired as a dairy industry marketing executive. Jerry loved his career, especially meeting and visiting people and making lifelong friends all over the state. He was proud of his relationship with Christ and strived to live every day to show it. He treasured his Bible and studied the Word daily.

Jerry loved his farm and cattle in Albion, and enjoyed tending the cows with his cousin, Virgil Moore, who he loved like a brother. An American history and politics enthusiast, Jerry was an avid reader of historical novels, legal dramas, and political commentaries. Jerry was enamored with the American Southwest, where he visited Tombstone and the Grand Canyon, among the many places that inspired his favorite classic western movies and television shows.

Cherishing his memory are his wife, Marquita Carr Moore; daughters Sherry Farhatt and husband Peter of Searcy, Robin Ricks and husband Jett of Little Rock, Stacy Carrico and husband Robert of Fayetteville; sister Vickie Young and husband Cliff of Greers Ferry; grandchildren Jett S. Ricks, Lucy Farhatt Plumlee, Peter J. Farhatt III, Avery Bingham, Beau Farhatt, Libby Hansen, Arden Ricks, Georgie Houser, and Harper Ricks; great grandchildren Tilly

Hansen, Ingrid Bingham, Nora Ricks, Henry Hansen, and Eleanor Houser. In addition to being a wonderful husband, father, brother, grandfather, and great-grandfather, Jerry was a beloved uncle, cousin, brother-in-law, and friend to many.

“ Memories of my cousin were thanks to my relationship with his oldest daughter as we were near the same age. What I remember most is his smile! It was a great one and it seemed to be there most of the time when I was around him. I wish I'd known sooner to let his family especially his girls know they would be in my thoughts and prayers. You are now.....
