“ Jerry was my brother whom I loved very much. He was a fine Christian man who lived for the Lord and was always wanting to show God's love in everything he did. He was a good husband to Bonnie and they continued to strive together to make the best of each passing day as Jerry's health declined. She is to be honored for her unselfishness. She was a good and loving wife. Tim and Teresa could proudly wear the "banner of love" when it came to their Daddy. Rachel, what a childhood you had growing up and spending so much time at Union Hill. You were the "apple of their eye". I know that Jim, Erica and Dylan will be there for all of you. I have so many fond memories of visiting Jerry and Bonnie at Bradford when they first got married. Mike and Bev were almost like a brother and a sister to me because I spent to much time at their house when I got to go to Bradford and see Jerry and Bonnie. It seems like only yesterday. I am so thankful that Alvin and I got to see Jerry and spend time with him the Friday before he left to go to his Heavenly home. The room was full of his family and Jerry was "Jerry". . We laughed and remembered (all the way back to their wedding day. Jerry was the oldest of the nine, and he was the patriarch. I think we all looked up to him and believed in him. He will be missed, but never forgotten. May God continue to give all of you His love, strength and guidance. -Brenda & Alvin Palmer

“ Jerry and Bonnie ( one of my best friends) who were just married, moved to Bradford . She and I would go to Mason’s pool every day while Jerry was out making them a living. Bonnie didn’t have a lot to do and neither did I, so we did nothing together that summer, such good friends and memories. Love you Bonnie. Kaye
