“ I met you when you were barely 14. Your lively spark captured my heart. I believe your lively spark was inherited from your grandmother/mother, Ruthie. What a blessing to meet both of you. You will continue to be missed. I miss you dropping by to visit, raiding my frig for fruit, lounging on the couch to watch a movie with us, even your habit of backing into my mailbox. I miss your sweet spirit and watching you grow into the strong woman and wonderful mother you were maturing in to. You loved your sweet Ronin. You were an intentional parent wanting the best for him. I love that you let others know how important for him to grow up knowing Jesus and wanted him in church. It's been 8 months now since we lost you. I still miss your sweet gentle spirit, precious laugh and kind heart. I see young ladies that remind me of you often. I still tear up thinking about our loss. You will not be forgotten and I pray often for your precious Ronin.

“Wow! This precious angel... I will never forget an experience I had with Jesayia that touched my heart forever. I was in for a visit and stayed at my sister Joyce's home in June 2013. Jesayia was there for the weekend, she stayed with my family often. Joyce would buy her new clothes and make her feel special. Upon leaving my parent's home in Bald Knob there was a puppy that had been dropped off and my family would have disowned me if I had not picked it up. I picked her up and my grandchildren in Texas named her Destiny. When I got to Joyce and Lowell's Jesayia immediately gave the puppy some love. We fed her and she wanted to give the dog a bath. She did! And she spent the entire evening picking off every tick on this puppy's body and loving on her! She was so loving, sweet, quiet, and kind. She exuded a supernatural love that most people do not have. Jesayia will forever hold a special place in my heart.

“Ms Ruth,
I am so sorry to hear the passing of Jesayia. I remember when you brought the twins in to open a checking account. Jesayia was very smart and ambitious. A very impressive young lady. You and your family in my prayer. I pray God helps you all to heal during this difficult time.
