“ So sorry for the passing of your beloved JW. We have many good memories of playing golf with JW and just knowing you guys as friends. Loved his sense of humor, don't think I ever saw him upset, he could usually bring a light mood to anything by finding something to joke about. We used to tease him that Nancy was raising the bar for the rest of us girls by running across the golf course at lunchtime with his lunch served to him in the cart. They were dedicated to each other. Treasured times with old friends are with us always. Love to Nancy and sons.
