So many happy memories in the tribute. So many pictures of the little boy I did not know. Jesse loved my sister with a fierce commitment that defied definition. I was struck by the joy in his eyes in so many of his "grown-up" photos. He loved his vocation and was dedicated to its service to the end of his days. We did not always have the easiest of relationships but I never doubted that I was always in his prayers. The best of times will stay in our hearts. Please hold his family in your prayers. Goodbye Brother until we meet again. LOVE AND PEACE.

“ Kay, Sorry to hear of the passing of Jess. Jess was more like an uncle or part of the family, not just our pastor. A song comes to mind that reminds me of Jess. "Thank You" by Ray Boltz. "Thank you for giving to the Lord, I am a life that was changed. I'm so glad that you gave". The song mentions an 8 year old boy that prayed the prayer after hearing the good news of the gospel and asked Jesus into his heart. I can relate. "One by one they came far as the eyes can see, each life somehow touched by your generosity. Little things that you had done, sacrifices made, unnoticed on earth, in Heaven now proclaimed." The song closes with "I know up in Heaven your not supposed to cry but I am almost sure there were tears in your eyes as Jesus took your hand and you stood there before the Lord. He said, my child look around you, for great is your reward, thank you for giving to the Lord." Jess - - - I thank the Lord for knowing you. I truly am a life that was changed.
